I. SIGNIFICANT ITEMS

Nothing to report.

II. OTHER ACTIVITIES

25X1 W.C. 1. [ ] USIA, has informed us that the Division Chiefs concerned have accepted the proposed three-week program submitted to them by SIC. He also indicated that [ ] would communicate directly with DTR concerning this matter. The proposed time table is 10 March to 28 March.

25X1 W 2. [ ] OSI Training Officer, has inquired informally about the possibility of SIC's putting on an after-hours USSR Country Survey for fifteen to twenty OSI staff personnel. He indicated that they could not be spared during working hours, but that they also had a definite need for this type of training. Being informed that SIC would probably be receptive to such a request [ ] is now surveying OSI's needs in more detail.

3. An SIC debriefing of the four Spanish trainees has been scheduled for Sunday, 16 February. [ ] will conduct the debriefing on the basis of questions submitted and discussed by SIC staff members.

25X1 4. A hasty reading by a few SIC staff members of [ ] to-be-published book entitled "Communism in China," a draft of which he left with SIC, indicates that it is an extremely sound, well-balanced piece of work. The form in which it is written, "a primer of questions and answers," is somewhat awkward, but the content illustrates a mature grasp of the nature, current developments, and problems of communism in China. This appears to bode well for [ ] future usefulness to SIC.
